Dear Mrs. Manley;

In reply to your letter of March 7th, I haven't seen Mr. Pompez as yet. I would be very glad to furnish you a musical unit including Miss Willa Mae Johnson, for your opening day in Newark if possible.

I would also like to see you and explain something to you about my two units. You did not tell me on what day your opening will be held. Will you please phone me or let me know where I can meet you in New York City so I can explain matters to you.

Very truly yours,

J. T. Hentelath
